THE CONGRESSIONAL RACE.

Unless the candidacy of Editor Given be seriously considered, Mr. Ellis is up to the present time the only announced candidate for Congress. The time has come for prospective candidates to make public their aspirations, but with one accord those having "bees in their bonnets" are hesitating and in dangerous delay losing the hope of success. It cannot be denied that Mr. Ellis will be a hard man to beat. He is by the universal custom of the district entitled to another term. An exception must be made in his case if he is not his own successor. He is not only fortified by the logic of the situation, but by his attentive and faithful service and sedulous application to duty, by guarding the interests of his constituents ably and fearlessly, he has justly won the endorsement he now seeks. The Kentuckian having been his friend in the past is gratified to observe the character he has made in a body where new members are expected to keep in the background during their first terms. If there are those who expect to defeat Mr. Ellis, it is high time they were beginning to bestir themselves. It has been given out that Dr. Norman, of Henderson, will run if his pet measure in the legislature, the miners' anti-script bill, passes the Senate and becomes a law. As this bill is already dead and buried in a Senate committee, Dr. Norman's candidacy may be considered settled in the negative. Hon. J. A. McKenzie has also been solicited by many of his friends to enter the race, but he is still undecided. Every day's delay will strengthen Mr. Ellis, as he has, even in Christian county, a strong following of active workers, who are already busily engaged taking pledges for him. If there is a man in the district who can defeat him, it is Mr. McKenzie. His extensive acquaintance and great popularity in all the counties would give him an advantage no new man would possess, but Mr. Ellis has proven himself to be a very successful canvasser in the two races he has heretofore made and it would take some mighty active and energetic mixing with the voters to leave him at home. If Mr. McKenzie expects at this late date to enter the contest, it is well enough for him not to underestimate the strength of his adversary. The fight would be close and doubtful from the start and would call for the most skillful management. It would recall the memorable contests of twelve or fourteen years ago. But the day of contention has passed, the mode of settlement is different. There would be a primary election and something like nine thousand noses would have to be counted to name the winner. These are cold facts. What is done must be done quickly.

Gov. Buckner has appointed the following gentlemen as delegates to the inter-sectional convention at Vicksburg next month: Chas. H. Huhlein, Louisville; H. P. McDonald, Louisville; A. L. Berry, Newport; Charles Reed, Paducah; J. Soule Smith, Lexington; Joshua D. Powers, Owensboro; Capt. J. M. Brooks, Middleboro; Judge M. H. Houston, Ashland; L. H. Brooks, Covington; Geo. Warren, Hickman; Capt Thomas Sproot, Columbus.

Rev. George Hunt, of Lexington, formerly a resident of this county, is a candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction. He is well qualified for the duties of the office and will doubtless prove a strong candidate. He was for a number of years President of Bethel College at Russellville and has had much experience as an educator. He will make an active canvass of the State when the race is formally opened. The election is in 1891.

The Best Result.
 Every ingredient employed in producing Hood's Sarsaparilla is strictly pure and is the best of the kind it is possible to buy. All the roots and herbs are carefully selected, personally examined, and only the best retained. So that from the time of purchase until Hood's Sarsaparilla is prepared, everything is carefully watched with a view to attaining the best result. Why don't you try it?

Census Supervisor N. B. Chambers, of Harrodsburg, is now in this end of the district arranging his list of enumerators. The census will be taken during the month of June, beginning on the 2nd, and there will be enough enumerators to complete the work in two weeks. These officials will be paid $1 a day and of course there is scrupulous for the places at the disposal of Mr. Chambers.

For years the editor of the Burlington Junction, (Mo.) Post, has been subject to cramp colic or fits of indigestion, which prostrated him for several hours and disabled him for business for two or three days. For the year he has been using Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy whenever occasion required, and it has invariably given him prompt relief. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Buckner Leavelle.

The Democratic State Central committee has fixed the Superior Court conventions for June 11. The first district will meet at Bowling Green, the Second at Frankfort and the Third at Lexington.

PREFERRING CHARGES.

Eighteen or Twenty Affidavits
 Against John Feland.

SOME OF THE CHARGES MADE.

(Orensboro Messenger.)

Just at the time when everybody is saying that John Feland is one of the best internal revenue collectors that Owensboro has ever known, there come rumors that charges of official misconduct are to be preferred against him. That there can be anything in the charges there is no one who has observed his methods and the model condition of his office can believe for a moment. Nevertheless, he is to be subjected to this annoyance. It is surmised from a reliable source that the enemies of Mr. Feland have been collecting affidavits against him and his subordinates, and are preparing to prefer formal charges against him. It is claimed that eighteen or twenty affidavits have been procured. The substance of them is not exactly known, but they are thought to be more or less inconsequential. One, it is rumored, is that somebody was seen in town with a small quantity of new whiskey procured from one of the distilleries, that had never been in a bonded warehouse. Whether the man was a government officer, a distillery employee, or an outsider, is not stated. This is probably a specimen of the charges against the collector.

Another charge is that the collector was dilatory in advertising the Welch distillery property for sale under the order of the department, and another that he has assigned more than the lawful number of storekeepers and gaugers to duty at some of the distilleries.

The public will be slow to believe anything reflecting upon the official character of John Feland, and the fact that these charges emanate from sources disappointed in the distribution of the patronage of his office will explain the matter.

The circumpect personal conduct of the collector, the close attention to the business of his office and the genteel, sober character of the men in his employ, have been a matter of frequent favorable comment. He works at his desk as laboriously as any clerk in his office, and supervises every detail. He has fully redeemed his pledge made in the outset that he would have no drunkards in the service, and summarily fired those who were inclined to tittle. His men are under strict discipline and can always be found at their posts.

With such a record as this, it is only amazing that any attempt to asperse his official career should be made, and if any notice is taken by the department of the charges it is a foregone conclusion that nothing will come of them.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than in all other diseases put together and until the last few years it was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c.

The American Press Association has sent out in stereotype plates an article labeled "Bluegrass Beauties," written by Daisy Fitzhugh. Mrs. J. G. Huhlein, Miss Lily Robinson, Mrs. Genevieve Morgan Mulligan, Miss Rosalie Stewart, Mrs. May Wiley Jones and Miss Maggie Clay are the six beauties whose pictures are given. Miss Ruth Stanton and Miss Lucy Lee Hill are also given mention in the article. It will be observed that all of the "beauties" written up are of the feminine gender, which shuts out Col. McCarty, Col. Craddock and other members of the newspaper fraternity noted for their personal pugnacity. Dunsy should give both sexes a chance.

The medical fraternity, backed up by carefully compiled statistics, is almost a unit in declaring that a moderate use of stimulants conduces to long life. It is also admitted that old whiskey is by far the best stimulant that can be used. Leading physicians recommend the I. W. Harper Whiskey, because it is pure, possesses a superior flavor and bouquet, and is not offered for sale until it is old and thoroughly matured.

Sole agents, Edmundson & Long, Hopkinsville, Ky.

The charges to be preferred against Mr. Feland will not affect his standing for integrity where he is known. Nobody here at his home will believe that they are more than the spiteful opposition of disappointed place-seekers.

I have often thought I would write and thank you for the wonderful Vitalia Capsules. I have been a great sufferer from dyspepsia and indigestion for twenty-three years. No one knows how much I have suffered. I could eat but little of the most delicate food; nothing seemed to assimilate. About three months ago I read your little book, I at once bought one box of your soft capsules, and after taking the first dose I felt like another person I was so relieved. The Vitalia Capsules with the Vitulin Liver Pills, are the best remedies for dyspepsia and liver troubles I have ever used. I feel safe in saying that if I continue to take the medicine and act prudently they will effect a permanent cure. MRS. J. B. ERWIN, 817 S. Summer St., Nashville, Tenn. (Wife of Dr. Erwin, pastor of Elm Street Church.)

My wife has found more relief from your Vitulin than from any remedy she has ever taken. I assure you of my own gratitude for so valuable a medicine. J. B. ERWIN, D. D. For sale by Rogers & Elgin, Hopkinsville, and Meloyouals & Co., Clarksville.

Hopkins and Caldwell counties both vote on the prohibition question May 10. Both counties are now dry, but as both sent wet representatives to the Legislature the chances are that the liquor men will carry the day in the coming elections.

A Virginia Killing.

Mr. R. Canille Overley, a brother of Mrs. W. L. Trice, of this city, was murdered by a negro railroad hand, near his home at Buffalo Springs, Va., on April 21st. He had had occasion to reprimand the negro for using profane language on his premises and in the presence of his family a few days before. The murderer watched his opportunity and as Mr. Overley was passing stepped up behind him and struck him a fatal blow on his head with a piece of timber. He was arrested promptly. It has since been learned that he has killed two other men in South Carolina.

Broke his Skull.

Joe Murphy, a Russellville butcher, was knocked down by an unknown negro Sunday night while on his way to the asylum and robbed of all the cash he had, $4. Murphy arrived in the city on the express Sunday night and inquired the way to the asylum, saying he had a sister in that institution whom he wished to visit. A negro, who had also just arrived, offered to show him the road and they left together. This was the last seen of the parties until Murphy was found with his skull crushed about 10 o'clock Sunday morning. The negro made good his escape and has not been heard from. Murphy is seriously injured. He was sent to his home in Russellville last night.

A Western Gull.

A colored man named Louis Wheeler shot and killed a strange bird at Mr. J. W. Carless' farm five miles from town, Sunday. Mr. Carless brought it to town yesterday and those who had seen sea gulls at once recognized his birdship. The scientific name is Larus occidentalis, or gull of the west, and the bird is a scavenger on the western sea coasts of North America. They are seen in large numbers in the bays along the California coast, and there is a heavy fine for killing them in that State. They live on fish and refuse matter and that finds its way into the water. The specimen killed is 25 inches long, wings 17 inches, tail 7 inches, bill 2 1/2 inches. In color it is bluish gray, with blue bill, yellow legs and flesh-colored webbed feet. It is a bird seldom seen this far from the Pacific ocean.

The Registration Bill will be published in the issue of the KENTUCKIAN of May 2. Those wanting extra copies of the paper will please place their orders by Saturday at noon. The matter is now in type and persons desiring the law in circular form will be supplied any time this week at very low rates.

Messrs. J. M. Givens, Ward Headley and J. R. Stanley, three bright and intelligent young men, were recently examined at this place touching their proficiency in regard to law. They passed creditable examinations, and were all granted license to practice in our courts. We wish them all success in their chosen profession.—Madisonville Hustler.

In the Garrettsburg district the woods are full of cuckoos of all kinds and colors. There are five candidates for magistrate, one of them an Afro-American. Esqs. J. B. White and D. J. Metcalfe are both seeking re-election and R. C. Rives, J. F. Dixon and Edmund Gilmore, col., are the new aspirants. For constable there are also five candidates, viz: T. S. Rives, the present incumbent, J. T. Rives, M. K. White, Mort Gibbs and Gilbert Buckner, col. This district is strongly Republican, owing to the large colored vote, though of late years the colored vote has been considerably divided.

MATRIMONIAL.

At 4:30 o'clock to-morrow afternoon Dr. W. B. Matthews and Miss Mary Bainbridge will be united in marriage at the residence of the bride's father, W. L. Bainbridge, in Nashville. Rev. W. M. Green, Methodist, will perform the ceremony. The couple will leave immediately after the marriage for Cedar Hill, Tenn., the home of the groom's father, where a reception will be tendered them. Dr. Matthews is located at Herndon, this county, where he has a large and increasing practice and is an exceedingly popular gentleman. The young lady is highly educated and a great favorite in Nashville society. The doctor will arrive at Herndon Saturday, where they will board at Mr. C. S. Coleman's.

Sam Hoskins and Miss Mattie Nall, from near Mt. Moriah, eloped to Tennessee Sunday and were married. The way they passed through town it was evident the old man was in hot pursuit with a shot-gun. But they beat his time and are now man and wife.—Clinton Democrat.

Mr. E. R. Carmack, editor of the Nashville American, will be married to-day to Miss Callie Dunaington, of Columbia, Tenn. Miss Dunaington lived in this city when a child and has frequently visited friends here within the last few years. Mr. Carmack is one of the brightest young journalists in Tennessee.

If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a peculiar medicine, possessing, by virtue of its peculiar combination, proportion, and preparation, curative power superior to any other article. A Boston lady who knew what she wanted, and whose example is worthy imitation, tells her experience below:

To Get

"In me store where I went to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla the clerk tried to induce me to buy their own brand of blood purifier, saying that it would last longer; that I might take it ten days' trial; that if I did not like it I need not pay anything, etc. But he could not prevail upon me to take it. I told him I knew what Hood's Sarsaparilla was. I had taken it, was satisfied with it, and did not want any other."

Hood's

When I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla I was feeling real miserable, suffering a great deal with dyspepsia, and so weak that at times I could hardly stand. I looked, and had for some time, like a person in emaciation. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me so much good that I wonder at myself sometimes, and my friends frequently speak of it." Mrs. ELIZA A. GORR, 61 Terrace Street, Boston.
